29 January 2018 - story by Taki Okami Ltd

ADVERTORIAL - The handcrafted Unmo Kenpu wallpaper is made with pride and devotion, gilding ultra-thin crushed genuine metal leaf flakes onto special Japanese 'washi' paper. Once the precious metal flakes leaves are amalgamated, strings of the finest Tomioka silk are applied vertically and a natural protecting veneer is applied to secure a unique colored design. The color and shininess are decided by the varnishing and alloys used (gold, platinum, silver, brass, aluminum, tin); the color and design possibilities are limitless. Thanks to this unique natural transparent lacquer, the material remains protected and consistent over time, it does not oxidise, and it preserves its colour fastness and radiance. The result is an easy-to-install, sophisticated and reliable wallcovering that reflects the light beautifully. By virtue of its extraordinary handcrafted production process and the use of natural ingredients, subtle variations will emerge from every lot: even a sample may slightly differ from the actual material ordered.
